EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.
2. Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Andrew Jordan on 8/30/04.
3. The application has been amended as follows:

In the Claims:

4. In claim 1, line 13 delete "regular" and insert therein - - triangular - -.
5. In claim 15, line 43 delete "regular" and insert therein - - triangular - -.
6. Delete claim 17.
7. Claims 1-16 and 18 are allowed.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

8. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claim 1 requires a flexible magnetic insole having a particular triangular magnetic pattern. Applicants first priority document disclosing the insole is the provisional, 60/118,832, filed 2/5/1999, and as such 2/5/1999 is applicants effective filing date (See MPEP 201.11, Section VI). In the previous office actions Masuda (U.S. Patent 4,843,738) and Moronaga et al.

Art Unit: 1733

(U.S. Patent 4,633,598) were applied to show a flexible magnetic insole. Claim 1 was amended to include the particular triangular magnetic pattern. Ardizzone (U.S. Patent 5,871,438) teaches the particular magnetic pattern. However, Ardizzone was published 2/16/1999 and is only available under 102(e). Ardizzone and the current application were owned by Nu-Magnetics, Inc. at the time of invention of the current application as asserted in the statement of common ownership submitted by applicants representative on 8/31/04. Thus, Ardizzone is removed as prior art (See MPEP 706.06 (I)(2)), and the claims are allowable as the prior art of record fails to teach or suggest forming a flexible magnetic insole having the particular triangular magnetic pattern disclosed in claim 1.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
